

THE DUBLIN REVIEW.

85

THIRD SERIES.

PUBLIC LIBRARY,

CITY OF BOSTON, MASS.

SEP 17 1888

July = October.

~~JANUARY - APRIL~~

MDCCCLXXIX.

PUBLIC LIBRARY,

CITY OF BOSTON, MASS.

SEP 17 1888

LONDON: BURNS & OATES.

DUBLIN: M. H. GILL & SON.

—
1879.

Ballantyne Press

BALLANTYNE AND HANSON, EDINBURGH
CHANDOS STREET, LONDON.

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
ART. I.—THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC; SHOULD IT BE PROHIBITED? .	1
Recent writers and speakers against total prohibition—
Would the “liberty of the subject” be infringed by it?—
Healthiness of total abstention—Drinking system the degenerating factor of the present time—Total prohibition the only remedy; impossibility of moderating sale of liquor shown by experience—Some proposed remedies for intemperance considered: self-control—Fewer liquor shops—Gothenburg system—Improvement of dwellings and condition of the poor—Intemperance most likely to increase with higher education—The Lords’ Committee on total prohibition—Would it be efficacious?—Example of America.
ART. II.—ONE GENERATION OF A NORFOLK HOUSE . . .	32
The book is a valuable contribution to Elizabethan history—
Characters of the Reformation period before Elizabeth—
And of her persecution of Catholics—The Pope’s Bull not a failure—The Seminarist invasion—The author’s sketches of missionary priests, and of Catholic gentry—Topcliffe, the “torture-master”—Henry Walpole—Demmoralization of the higher classes.
ART. III.—ORIGEN AGAINST CELSUS	58
The “True Discourse” of Celsus—He charges Christianity with secrecy—With an unreasoning faith and partiality to ignorance—With being of a factious spirit—With its divisions—With differing little from other beliefs—With not having temple or altar—He ascribes our Lord’s miracles to magic—His low abuse of Christians—His attack on their leading dogmas—Origen as a Controver-sialist.

	PAGE
ART. IV.—ON THE ORIGIN OF THE "SOLAR MYTH," AND ITS BEARING ON THE HISTORY OF ANCIENT THOUGHT	90
The writer's correspondence resulting from the January article on the Argonauts—Prof. Max Müller, Sir George Cox, and Prof. Sayce on Myths—Necessary development of Solar myths—Essentially the same actions attributed to all the heroes—Nearly the same accounts occur in the legends of other nations—Stories of Tantalus and Sisyphus—Of Ixion—Solar origin of the two great Homeric epics.
ART. V.—BRITTANY AND THE BRETONS	111
Two opposite views of modern Brittany—"Les derniers Bretons," of E. Souvestre—Le Gonidec and Brizeux—"Ignorance"—Progress—Literature and Poesy—Description of the country—Language—Remains—"Superstition"—Faith—Devotion to the Church—The Railway—Intoxicating Drinks.
ART. VI.—THE DEMANDS OF IRELAND	137
Importance just now of the Education Question—Tendency of modern Legislation—Just complaints of Ireland—Injustice of the treatment of Ireland in regard to Educational Endowments—The voice of Pope Pius IX.—Various appeals to Rome by the Irish Episcopate, and the answers—The "National" system—The Queen's Colleges—Theological principles of the Roman decisions—The University Bill of the O'Connor Don—The Model Schools.
ART. VII.—THE EDUCATION QUESTION IN BELGIUM	154
Education in Belgium since 1830—The National Constitution established free Education—Catholic efforts—Signal success of Louvain—Schools for Girls—The new Bill brought in to please a few free-thinkers—The law of 1842 intended religious teaching in primary schools—State and Catholic training-schools—The struggle of the Freemasons against Religion—The new Bill puts the priest below the sewing mistress—It is subversive of the Constitution—The law of 1842 not unconstitutional—"Neutrality," a ruse to introduce godlessness—Postscript: Manifesto of the Belgian Bishops on the passing of the

Bill—The situation, with consequent struggle, is accepted —Every parish shall have its Catholic School—All must work and pray.

ART. VIII.—CARDINAL NEWMAN 187

Mr. Justin O'Byrne's "Lives of the Cardinals"—Address of Cardinal Newman on receiving the biglietto—Importance of the occasion of his being created Cardinal—His "gift of speech"—His popularity among his countrymen
—His work in England—The dissipation of Anti-Catholic prejudice—The portraiture of a teaching Church—His intense feeling for "authority"—Veneration of Catholics towards him.

SCIENCE NOTICES 204

The Telephone—The Electric Light.

BOOKS ON SCIENCE 207

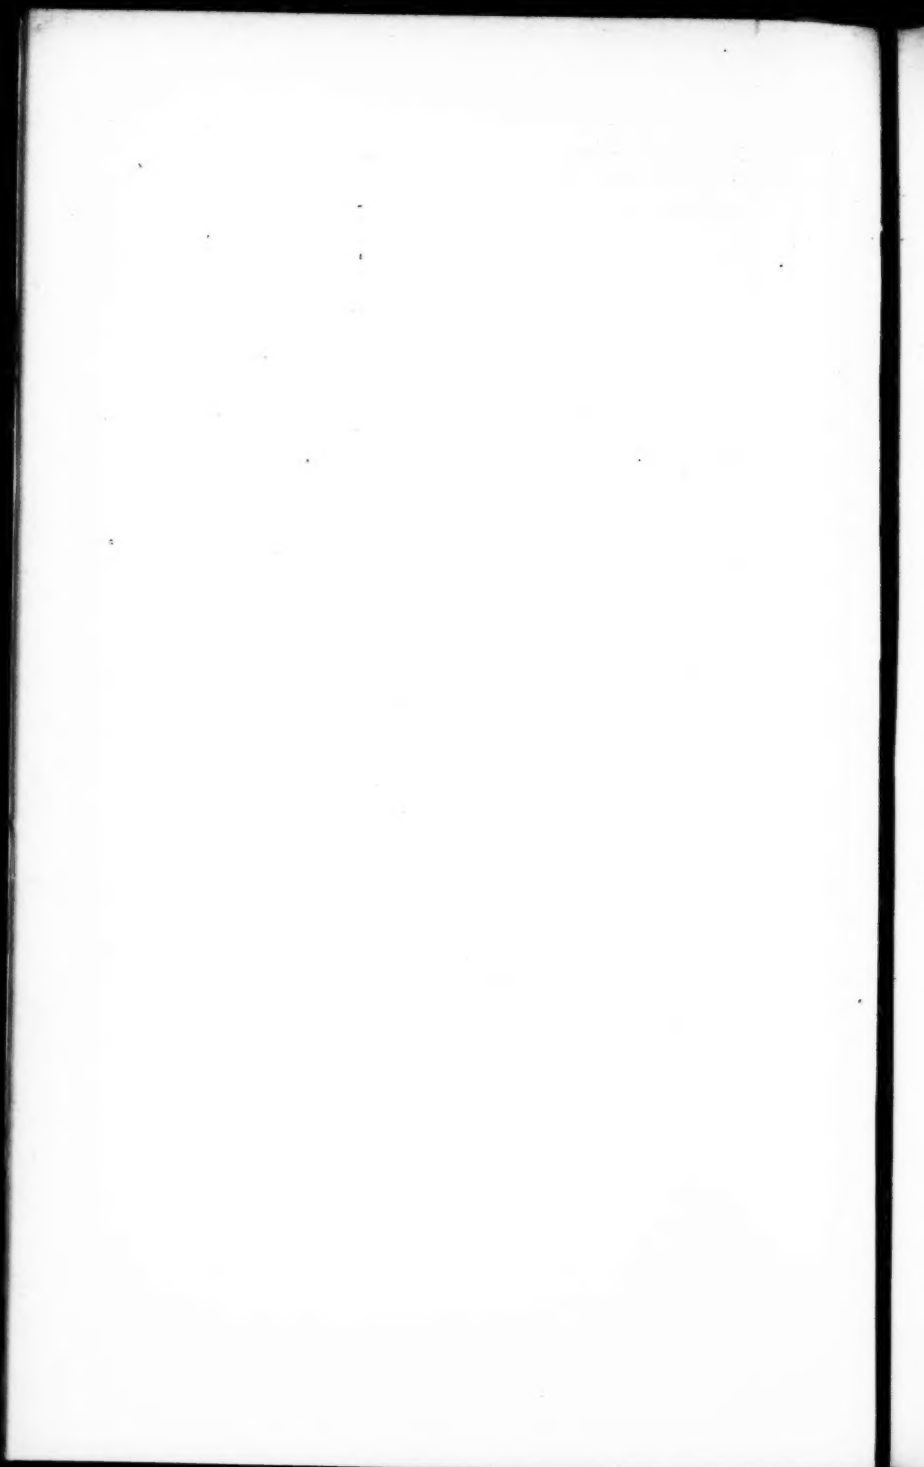

Haeckel's Evolution of Man—Janet's Final Causes—Virchow's Freedom of Science and Pusey's Un-Science not Science—Professor Bain's Education as a Science—Herbert Spencer's Education—Mgr. Dupanloup's l'Education des Filles—Comte du Moncel's Le Téléphone, le Microphone, et le Phonographe.

NOTICES OF CATHOLIC CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS 221

The Katholik—The Historisch-politische Blätter—The Stimmen aus Maria Laach—The Civiltà Cattolica—The Scuola Cattolica—The Revue Catholique de Louvain—
The Revue Générale—The Revue des Questions Historiques.

NOTICES OF BOOKS 236

Gebler's Galileo—Dr. Ward's Essays—S. Francis de Sales'
Of the Love of God—Foley's Records of the English
Province of the Society of Jesus—Abbot Sweeney's Sermons—Prof. Waldi's Introduction in S. Scripturam—
Villari's Macchiavelli—Clark's S. Augustine—Brooke's
Six Judgments of the Privy Council—Ward's Old English Drama—Treggiari's Life of Father Bambozzi—Goldwin's Poetical Works of R. S. Hawker—Brugsch-Bey's Egypt
under the Pharaohs—Father Morris's Life of S. Patrick—Description of Ireland.

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
ART. I.—THE EARLY SCOTTISH CHURCH	257
Early date of Christianity in Scotland—S. Ninian—S. Palladius—S. Columba—S. Kentigern or Mungo—Apostolate of Columban Church among the Angles—S. Aidan—Easter controversy and decline of Columban Church—Relation of monastery and diocese characteristic of Scotch Church—S. Margaret—Holy See and Scotland.
ART. II.—THE AGE OF DANTE IN FLORENTINE CHRONICLES	279
Authenticity of Dino Compagni's Chronicle—Religion in midst of barbarism in mediæval Florence—Dante reflects the teaching of the Church—Temper of Dante's age—Character of Italian commonwealths—Aspect of Florence.
ART. III.—SUPPLEMENTARY REMARKS ON FREE WILL	304
Purpose of article to re-state more lucidly argument for Free Will—Familiar examples—Nature of "anti-impulsive effort"—Argument therefrom for Free Will—Power of habits in determining will's impulse—Technical terms explained—Objections replied to.
ART. IV.—THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY	330
Renaissance political idea in France—In other nations of Europe—Its effect on the Church—Suppression of Society of Jesus—The philosophers in France and other European countries—Abjection of the Church.
ART. V.—HISTORY OF THE PRUSSIAN "KULTURKAMPF"	350
Dismay at growth of the Church source of enmity in Prussia—Conduct of Bishops at Vatican Council signal for active persecution—Bismark chooses Falk to aid in conflict with Rome—Education laws passed—Persecution of Bishops and of religious orders.

	PAGE
ART. VI.—GUNPOWDER AND MODERN WARFARE	364
Constituents of gunpowder—"Incorporating" and "granulating" processes—Chemical explanation of explosive power—Gun-cotton—Range and velocity of projectiles—Gunpowder, ancient and mediæval history—Slow introduction of artillery—Rapid perfection of arms in this century—Shells—Fuses—Range-finders—Has gunpowder been a benefit or a curse?
ART. VII.—LORD LAURENCE	396
How "annexation" comes about—The Punjaub—The Sikh War—Henry Laurence, Charles Mansel, and John Laurence—John Laurence left alone—The Mutiny—The Punjaub made safe—Delhi—Lord Laurence, Viceroy of India.
ART. VIII.—OUR ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS AND THEIR WORK	417
What our schools have to do—Difficulties in teaching religion to our poor—Not impossible to teach religion in Government-aided schools—Objections answered—A practical time-table—Shall we succeed in overcoming difficulties?—Managers should know their work—"Religions" will not supply the place of a manager—A sufficient amount of time for religious instruction should be secured—There should be good example and discipline in the school itself—How the Poor School Committee might help—And the training colleges—The improvement of the children's home.
ART. IX.—THEOLOGY, PAST AND PRESENT, AT MAYNOOTH	449
Establishment of Maynooth—Catholic education still grievously impeded—Ireland gets her teachers from France—Gallicanism—Jansenism—A change—The present.
ENCYCLICAL LETTER OF POPE LEO XIII. ON THE SCHOLASTIC PHILOSOPHY	465

Contents.

iii

PAGE 364

PAGE
479

NOTICES OF CATHOLIC CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS

La Scuola Cattolica—La Civiltà Cattolica—Revue des Questions Historiques—Katholik—Historisch-politische Blätter—Stimmen aus Maria Laach—Literarische Rundschau.

NOTICES OF BOOKS 495

Ziegler's Die Laternischen Bibelübersetzungen vor Hieronymus—Summa S. Thomæ uno schemate exhibita—Ollivier's L'Eglise et d'Etat au Concile du Vatican—Smith's Life of Dr. Wilson—Carlyle's South Africa—M. Arnold's Mixed Essays—Miss Agnes Stewart's Life of Fisher—Smith's Early History of the Church—Lily's Characteristics of Cardinal Newman—A Victim of Falk Laws—Dr. Walsh's Harmony of the Gospels—Lady Lovat's A Benedictine of the sixteenth century—Warren's Oxford MS. Irish Missal—Dr. Westcott's Canon of the New Testament—and the Bible in the Church—Milne's Select Works of Johnson—Dean Church's Influences of Christianity upon National Character—Perry's Life of St. Hugh—Professor Mivart's Address to the British Association—Miss Bowles's A Gracious Life—Miss Allies's Three Catholic Reformers—Father Coleridge's The Sermon on the Mount—Father Bagshawe's Credentials of the Catholic Church—Brassey's Lectures on the Labour Question—De Vere's Legends of the Saxon Saints—Abbot Burder's Christian Life and Virtues (Gay)—Northcote and Brownlow's Roma Sotteranea—Lord Arundel's Scientific Value of Tradition—Archbishop Vaughan's Arguments for Christianity—Life of Mrs. Aikenhead—Dr. Hutch's Life of Mrs. Ball—Acta Conciliorum recentiorum, Collectio Lacensis—Father Humphrey's Other Gospels—Dr. Ward's Condemnation of Pope Honorius—Bishop Ricards's Catholic Church and the Kaffir—Mrs. Parsons's Life of S. Colette—Foley's Records of the English Province S.J.—Where did King Oswald Die?—Eugène Boré—Father Shearman's Loca Patriciana—Browning's Dramatic Idylls—Tuer's Luxurious Bathing—Mrs. Bishop's Elizabeth Eden—Waterton's Pietas Mariana Britannica.

396

417

449

465

	PAGE
BOOKS OF DEVOTION AND SPIRITUAL READING	554

Dom E. J. Luck's Short Meditations—Father Beste's Le Masson's Spiritual Reading—Father Lefebvre's Month of the Sacred Heart—The Treasury of Prayer—The Mystery of the Crown of Thorns—Gleanings from Père
Caussade—Segneri's Manna of the Soul—Pensées Eucharistiques—Vacation Days—Andrade's Daily Meditations—Father Rawes's The Bread of Life—MacVeagh's De Clarivière's Novena in honour of the Blessed Virgin Mary.